

Useful Careers Websites

General

www.cascaid.co.uk (ask Mrs Lawrance for our school licence code)

Try KUDOS to give you an idea of the type of career that might suit your skills and interests or CAREERSCAPE to find information on a wide variety of careers.

<http://icould.com> It just shows what you can do—take the buzz test to see what kind of person you are www.careersbox.co.uk A large collection of video clips of people talking about the jobs they do (headphones recommended) www.careerpilot.org.uk Your choices at 14, 16 and 18, explore different job sectors and how you can study and work at the same time - even to university level.

www.opendoorsmedia.co.uk Information on apprenticeships, careers, jobs, training, A levels, colleges, universities.

<http://www.planitplus.net/> Career zones

Useful Job Vacancy Websites

www.thisisgloucestershire.co.uk/jobs Local job Vacancies

www.glosjobs.co.uk The largest on-line job advertiser in Gloucestershire with thousands of jobs offered every day.

www.gumtree.com/jobs/gloucester More local jobs.

www.fish4.co.uk Type in the area you wish to search for.

www.whatnowglos.co.uk Local Jobs in Gloucester and the Forest of Dean.

www.jobsbyme.co.uk Search for jobs in your chosen area and sector.

Apprenticeships Websites

<https://www.gov.uk/further-education-skills/apprenticeships>

www.theswac.org.uk

www.opendoorsmedia.co.uk

www.indeed.co.uk

<http://www.gw-partnership.co.uk>

Volunteering Opportunities

<http://www.do-it.org.uk/> Type in the geographical area where you want to work.

<http://www.volunteerglos.org.uk>

<http://www.gloucestershirewildlifetrust.co.uk/volunteering>

<http://www.vinspired.com>